ROCKFISH SEAFOOD GRILL, LLC ACQUIRED BY PRIVATE EQUITY FIRMS

Rockfish Seafood Grill, LLC (“Rockfish”) today announced that substantially all of its assets relating to its Rockfish restaurants have been acquired by a group of private investors. The investors are the private equity firms Charter Private Equity, LP (Dallas), White Oak Capital Partners, LP (Dallas), and Capital Point Partners (Houston), as well as individual investor Henry Leonard (Tyler). Mr. Leonard, incoming CEO of Rockfish, stated, “We are pleased to have purchased the Rockfish Seafood Grill restaurants. Founder Randy Dewitt did a terrific job of creating and incubating the concept, and his team has developed a dynamic and energetic culture that is ready for growth. We're honored to be part of such a motivated and seasoned group.”

Rockfish, headquartered in Richardson, Texas, is a casual dining restaurant company that operates 14 restaurants principally in the DFW Metroplex, with additional units located in Houston, Lubbock and Durham, North Carolina. Rockfish is well known for offering guests a distinctive ‘crave-able’ menu with a comfort food twist comprised of popular items such as fish tacos, a shrimp basket and the award winning Mexican Shrimp Martini. “I am pleased that I was able to sell the Rockfish brand to a solid operating team interested in growing the concept. The sale enables me to further develop the Twin Peaks brand and launch additional new brands,” commented Rockfish founder Randy DeWitt.

Mr. Ray Washburne, President of Charter Private Equity added, “Rockfish is a restaurant we have always admired. We are pleased to add it to our restaurant brands and look at it as a cornerstone brand that we plan for an immediate expansion“.

GE Capital provided senior debt to the acquirer who was represented by Haynes Boone. Rockfish was represented by Munsch, Hardt, Kopf, & Harr, P.C. for legal matters and by Mastodon Ventures, Inc as sell-side advisor. Specific terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Charter Private Equity is a unit of Charter Holdings the family investment office of Mr. Washburne and his partners. White Oak Capital Partners, was founded in 1987 by Joseph B. Longino, Jr. as a middle market merchant banking and private equity firm. Capital Point Partners is an investment management firm providing mezzanine financing to middle market companies throughout the United States. The partners of Capital Point have been investing together since 1987, originating more than 70 mezzanine transactions with aggregate investment values in excess of $1 billion. Mastodon Ventures, is an Austin based M&A advisory firm focused on the Restaurant industry.
